Subject: Delegated Partner Status

We are pleased to announce that Hi Tech Electronic 90022250 have been nominated to become a Northrop Grumman Delegated Partner. A review of your product history for the previous twelve months reflects sustained excellence as a supplier of high quality products to Northrop Grumman Aeronautics Systems (AS).

The Delegated Partner Award is recognition for your high level of quality performance as a Northrop Grumman AS supplier. It empowers your company to act on behalf of AS in conducting final acceptance of your products designated as Delegated Partner by Purchase Order. Suppliers must follow their PO requirements regardless if they are Delegated or not.

Congratulations to you and your employees!

Sincerely,
